

PRODUCTION NOTES

The 2011 Greater Philadelphia Resource Guide for Living With HIV/AIDS marks the 22nd year that such a document has been produced, starting with the Critical Path AIDS Project newsletter's "Directory of P.W.A. Services" in November, 1989.

Our goal is to provide a comprehensive listing of HIV-related resources for people living with HIV and AIDS in the greater Philadelphia area. We also include social service organizations that are not HIV-specific, but that have something valuable to offer to the HIV/AIDS community. Finally, we include some national HIV or social service organizations that can serve as important resources to our local population.

Many of these organizations came as referrals through our network of clients, volunteers, and staff. We welcome feedback, corrections, and updates from the community on an ongoing basis. If there is an organization that you have found to be helpful but that we do not list, please suggest it and we will follow up with them. If you find errors, alert us and we will correct them (See the form titled "We Want To Know"). If you are not successful in finding an organization to meet your needs, please contact the AIDS Library and we will do a personalized reference search for you. Finally, please check out our website for updates throughout the year: www.aidslibrary.org.

We owe our thanks to all of the organizations who provide these vital services, and their staff who took the time to provide us with updated information. I am heavily indebted to my colleagues and to the volunteers and interns who have contributed to this effort: Anonymous, Anthony, John Barbieri, Allison Buehler, Jeff Bullard, Casey Chanton, Charles, Christi Clark, Christina U., Craig A., Darryl, Jose de Marco, Joe D., Eric, Juliet Fink, Caitlin Fogel, Allie Fraser, Tommy Gallagher, Aurora Garcia, Hassan Gibbs, Gregory Grant, Nancy Gunnarson, Bobby Haderer, Gregory Hand, Roy Hayes, Leah Hilsey, Lenny P. Very special thanks to Robin Miller Photography, who captured the cover, and the spirit of the Resource Guide, in all its messy glory.
